Young Rembrandts Named in Top 500 Franchises, 8th Year in a Row

Having opened its first franchise in 2001, Young Rembrandts' children's art enrichment program ranks in the Top 500 by Entrepreneur Magazine.

Elgin, IL, February 28, 2013 -- Young Rembrandts, the nation's top ranked art enrichment program, has been named one of the top 500 franchises in the United States, ranking No. 308 in Entrepreneur Magazine's Franchise 500®, No. 55 in Low Cost franchises and No. 87 in Top Home-Based Franchises (2012). The rankings for all 500 companies are determined using an exclusive formula that takes into account objective and quantifiable factors. The most important factors include financial strength and stability, growth rate and size of the system.

"I am ecstatic to see we are ranked in the Entrepreneur Top 500 again! Our franchisees have shown consistent growth over the past year," says Lizi Fetter, Young Rembrandts' Marketing Director. "Parents will always invest in their children's education and our customers really value the academic advantage their kids get by participating in Young Rembrandts drawing classes."

Having opened its first franchise in 2001, Young Rembrandts, a children's art enrichment program, services about 30,000 kids a week across the US and Canada. Today, Young Rembrandts offers classes throughout the United States, Canada, Germany, Middle East and Asia.

About Young Rembrandts:

Based in Chicago, Young Rembrandts offers drawing classes as an afterschool program to children ages 3 ½ -12 years. Young Rembrandts is an acclaimed, step-by-step drawing method that works hand-in-hand with our original, innovative art curriculum developed by a team of educators and artists. Our tiered lesson plans and multisensory approach to learning meet every child at their unique ability level. Our volume of curriculum is designed so a child can be enrolled from pre-school to sixth grade and never repeat a lesson. This allows our students to continually build skills and develop their personal style and creativity.
