

Young Rembrandts West Austin Receives National Award

Cathy Greenlaw, owner of Young Rembrandts of West Austin, received the team player award at the company's recent annual convention, recognizing a franchisee that most represents working for the system.

"It's invigorating bringing the entire Young Rembrandts family together," said Bette Fetter, Founder and CEO of Young Rembrandts. "We are honored to have such amazing franchisees behind this business – it is the key to our success. Being able to take the time to recognize franchisees that have gone above and beyond shows how much we appreciate the effort our team puts in day in and day out."

The various awards given ranged from Rookie of the Year, Mentor Award, Team Player, Perseverance award, Winning Spirit Award, and the 1,5000 students award. Although each award is different, they all highlight aspects of entrepreneurial spirit, persistence, and dedication to Young Rembrandts' mission. The team player award is given to a franchisee that brings ideas to the table and communicates effectively.

"It is incredibly fulfilling knowing the hard work of my team has not gone unnoticed, and that we get to be a part of a company that values, supports, and recognizes the efforts of each location," said Greenlaw. "Receiving the team player award is a constant reminder that my ideas are valued and my voice is being heard."

Through its unique methodology that gives kids the confidence to create skilled artwork, Young Rembrandts helps boost cognitive development, hand-eye coordination, spatial learning and critical thinking skills. Unlike many other childhood art enrichment programs, Young Rembrandts provides students with a tangible takeaway project with each lesson. Students are able to learn a new technique and complete an exceptional piece of artwork within a single class period.

For more information about Young Rembrandts of West Austin or to register for their drawing lessons, please visit <https://www.youngrembrandts.com/austinwest/>.

About Young Rembrandts

Young Rembrandts is a recognized leader in art education, offering a curriculum focused on teaching children to draw, using demonstration and a structured step-by-step process. Through the process of weekly instruction students are exposed to a wide variety of subject matter, artistic concepts, art history and mastery of their materials. Classes are taught to children ages 3 ½ to 12 years old. Young Rembrandts teaches more than 40,000 students each week in 31 states and four provinces. Through franchising, Young Rembrandts offers individuals the chance to grow their own business while creating a positive impact within the community.

To learn more about Young Rembrandts franchise opportunities, visit: www.youngrembrandtsfranchise.com.

To learn more about Young Rembrandts, visit <https://www.youngrembrandts.com>.

###